No more Scab in Sheep.
The undersigned an old sheep farmer in the south of this province after many years of study in the pernicious infirmity of the scab, has at last discovered an infallible remedy against a sickness that in the body w'ere it generally breaks out likea storm residing all the remedies that to this time have been discovered.

This specific so simple is its application in a great in its result, is preferable to all invented until now, it is cheaper than tobacco, and free from poisonous substances contained in all other remedies before invented.

With only one stroke of my specific there is sufficient for the Scab of 800 or 1000 sheep, and at the low price of $ 100, it will facilitate all sheep farmers to rest upon their sheep in a perfect state of healthiness; to make known this remedy not in duce farmers to prove it, I have determined to sell small packages of 500 h at $8 which I hold at every one's disposition who wants to prove its infallibility.

Instructions for its application will be given in the deposit of specific against the scab:

INK MANUFACTORY.
No. 50, Calle 25 de Mayo.
And is prepared to sell as good Ink, as any made in any part of the globe, and warranted to retain its beautiful jet black color which it has at the moment when used, for 50 p $ less than the same can be bought at any other house.

People under the impression, that they pay their 320 mp. for a quart bottle of English Ink, can have the same procured, that must of the Ink sold for English, is made in this country, and imposed upon the public as such. But I am not ashamed to put my own Name on the labels, being fully convinced that my Ink is of a much superior quality, and possesses more virtues than most of the Inks.

I—It is of a very rich black at the moment when used.

II.—Retains its color.

III.—Runs freely off the pen.

IV.—A preserver of the eyes to those, who have much to write at night because it does not — force their eyesight, to see what they have written.

For the reasons explained, I hope that my prejudice generally entertained against Home Manufacture will be laid aside, and I ask to try the same which will be a benefit to the buyer, and the country, in assisting N. B.—Orders left at the office will be punctually attended to and delivered free of any charges.

"Ab fatti nirem, nil tri ben audem"
Cicero.—Cicero.

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1863.

CONGRESS—SENATE.

The Senators met yesterday to the number of 10, Sr. Paz being in the chair. The secretary read a number of notes received after the close of the session of 1862. It seems the Nat. Executive deemed it unadvisable to call Congress to clerks, reporters &c. highly inconvenient, some of these employees being severally paid in the Provincial (national and provincial). The president of the Senate refused, meantime, to dismiss or change them alleging they had been appointed by a special law.

Sr Lavarello's project for navigating the Bermejo river was the subject of a lengthened note from the Executive, as the immunities claimed by ports on that river would transgress the constitution by creating differential duties and conferring local privileges. Mr. Rem's project was not a parallel case, his concession having been already passed by the Parana chambers before the Federal Constitution existed.

The matter was passed to the committee of Constitutional affairs.

Dr Alsina objected that it rather came under the head of Finance.

The chairman said it turned on the question whether Lavarello's concession infringed the constitution or not, and, however, if the House preferred, would submit it to the Finance committee, with liberty to call in the other committee.

The election of Sor Luqiue for San Juan was conveyed in a note, which was passed [without reading] to the Constitutional committee.

The Secretary then proceeded to read Dr. A. Navarro's draft for the formation of a Supreme Court of Justice. It comprises over 50 sections, and is explicit in details, almost to frivolity, especially providing that the court is not bound to correct his mother etc.

After the tedious recital, Dr. Navarro supported his project by some general remarks. He had almost copied it from Story, as we are bound to imitate the U. States in jurisprudence, having taken their political form as a model. He had also studied Achilles Murat, a distinguished American lawyer, and although the work was not perfect or complete, it was vastly better than the project of last year, which left the Supreme Court in embryo.

The theory of justice was good, in B. A. & C. Mr. Navarro, but the execution of it, a farce: for the agent of the law received a salary insufficient to support a bachelor, much less a man of family, who was therefore obliged to live by bribery in the non fulfilment of his duty. As it was to be regretted the examination of witnesses could not be conducted orally in presence of both litigants, as in England and America, the establishment of the supreme Court was urgently required, touching all questions, with foreign Ministers or Consuls, disputes between two or more of the provinces, shipwreck, salvage, suits between the Government and foreign residents etc. He, therefore, begged his colleagues would accept his project, reserving till afterwards suggestions for amendment or elucidation of the subject.

Dr. Alsina, and others——"I second it."

The bill was then handed over to the Legislative committee.

The president proceeded to name the several committees, prefacing the remark that some were not yet advised, but momentarily expected, and the members present could act in the interim, as full committees.

Constitutional affairs: Sors. Pena, Lapiur, Fragueiro.

Finance Mssrs. Fragueiro, Gonzales, Gutenmuate.

War: Mess. Madariaga, Ferré Correa.

Legislation: Mssrs. Urburu, Palma, Navarro.

Petitions: Elias, Cullen, Gomez.

Dr. Alsina and D. Mariano Fragueiro were then called and sworn to as provisional president and vice president of the Chamber. (No public or tumult was used).

A note was handed in from the N. Executive, to the effect that the Republic wanted very much a proper diplomatic agent in England, France and Spain, for which post the Government nominated D. Marino Balcarce begged the Chamber to ratify the same.

It was passed to the committee of Petitions, after which the president stated there was no other business before the House and closed the meeting at 2 p. m.

The bar was thinly attended, and several were expecting the Cordoba railway concession would have been called on, as Mr Wheelwright wishes to have it ratified in time to permit his return by French mail [14th inst.]

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Our subscribers in the camp are in great spirits. They have discovered that Dn. Miguel Nuñez, Mr. Acosta's right hand man, is nothing more nor less than a descendant of the Nuñez of Dublin [presumably, county Kerry—a very respectable family Sr Dn J. M. Nuñez, in plain English, is Mr John Michael Nooney. We confess that we had some doubts on the subject, until we read his letter to the Ministers which smack so much of the Blarney stone, Nuñez is an Irish man, or of Irish descent. With an Irish official, Governor Saavedra will drive this province ahead, until the very Portenos themselves won't know it.

No steamer having arrived from Montevideo, no whole-boat from Gualeguaychu, no private letter to Mrs Flores, we are all about as much in the dark as to the news from du or Salto. A few Bolsa individuals who possess superior information, and, as a matter of course, invariably make superior losses, are of opinion that Flores is making headway, and that Medina with 3000, Lamas 900, and he Pulaski, with 1200 men, are all going to be "chawed up" by Flores, who is encamped midway between Tacuarembó and Dorotheugo.

There is a good deal of anxiety felt about the new Argentine banks, which we hear so much talked of. Most people think that some other precautions may be taken, if these new banks get the right of emission, we shall get flooded with paper money, and in a few years will have a regular crash. At the same time, it can not be denied that the want of capital in the interior is one of the causes of the great stagnation of trade. Many persons who own whole territories of camp, have not the least cash to fill a man's pockets. The provinces certainly want banks, but how they are to be established in the absence of other capital than land, we are at a loss to say.

It may be interesting to some of our readers to know that the Government has advertised for bids to continue the Western Railway to the Villa Mercedes, 115 miles. The plans and specifications can be seen at the station-house. Respecting these plans and specifications, there are very severe criticisms.

Last evening a meeting was held by some Authentic Oriental, who feel for Flores's critical position, and think that something ought to be done to help him Cash he is not short of, since he pays his way wherever he goes, but in our report of the fire, we forgot not only, but forages and beef but fire-arms he has none. We have not heard how the meeting went off, but learn that it was poorly attended.

The President's remarks about the unjustifiable system of "auxilio" has met with universal approval: nothing could be more monstrous than the soldier law which hitherto existed in the camps, and our friends the farmer have good reason to thank Gen. Mitre for this sound reform. None are those who have resided in the camp in stormy times, can appreciate the benefit conferred upon the pastoral and working industry of the country by this measure. An irresponsible Cabo, or bare-footed Alcalde, too often had it in his power to pounce down upon any one Foreigner's flock of sheep, and take the fattest Ewes to feed the soldiers. We have known instances, where a farmer nearly lost his life remonstrating with some fellows on their taking Ewes instead of capons

We have received a beautiful sample of cotton from Mr Gowland, grown in the Province of Salta; it is at present on exhibition at our office, which is now becoming a regular Museum. We have samples of cotton from almost every province of the Republic, also sugar-cane from Mendoza, maize from the Islands near Rosario, gold from Fray Bentos, silver from San Juan, wine from Mendoza; in fact, a hundred extraordinary things which are sent in to us from all quarters. Many of our friends, on entering our office profess astonishment at the extraordinary appearance of the place: sheep-wash, wool-samples, cotton gins, bags of cotton and bales of wool. But on our office as emblematic of our mission, "to create and foster the industry of the country."

It has been disputed how the voting went the other day, on Sr Varela's motion, asserting that it was 29 for and 30 against. The Secretary insists that it was 19 for and 45 against. We, however, distinctly state it was 29 for and 30 against. In any event our friend Don Mariano lost.

We perceive in the "Nacion Argentina," a notice to the public respecting a subscription that it was to be the purpose of presenting Messrs Lees with gold medals, in which it states that similar lists are opened at the Bolsa and other places. Perhaps they omitted to name the "Standard" we cannot discover, as it was one of the penny a liners of that very paper that spoke of the Lees in such terms. We regret that the Messrs Lees leave us so soon; they take with them the best wishes of all who have had the good fortune to know them. Buenos Ayres has never witnessed before such astounding feats as the xampitheatrostation of Messrs Lees and Hurlingham.

The horse suit in the Villa Lezan, is a "bona fide" case and will cause some amusement before finished, as our friend, the plaintiff, is determined to carry it through all the courts in town before he gives it up. We hear he went to see Mr Canon yesterday, but the Chief was out, so he was told to call again.

There is a report about town that our merry friend Mr Ellis has, with other day, pitched his 2 Ollendorfs into the street, and threatened to send the two masters to Bahia Blanca if they did not immediately leave off the publication of the word "Emancipation," which has puzzled every one in town. The Ollendorfs are friends of Mr Wise and Webster, but like Skeddle, the word can't be found and the polonius is an uproar. The brass cups, who ex act promotion, have taken the matter up, as the extraordinary re-action which has taken place in the houses with the word over the door, is a reflection on Chile's report concerning the "splendid conflagration" in the market. He states one thing which we all know, namely, that the Lees have left off at 10 o'clock and damage was trumped up, and, that the Minister of War was there; but, he omits to state that the fire was put out on the ground with an engine, was Mr George Wilkes, and that but for his, and his friends' exertions, the whole block would have been reduced to ashes. Col. Ewell, we hear, was there also, but M. Landois we would suppose was absent, as we don't see his name mentioned.

We don't like to fall out with Sr Cazon, but could he find it in his to omit the names of our heroic countrymen whose exertions contributed more to extinguish the flames than even the presence of the Minister of War or Commander Escola and his soldiers. We like fair play. We consider that his Excellency Sr Gelly deserves every praise for having gone to see Sr Cazon's assertion that the presence of the Minister of War tended to animate our friends, or make them work one hour less harder or quicker, was a good joke. In our report of the fire, we forgot not only, but forages and beef but fire-arms he has none. We have not heard how the meeting went off, but learn that it was poorly attended.

The President's remarks about the unjustifiable system of "auxilio" has met with universal approval: nothing could be more monstrous than the soldier law which hitherto existed in the camps, and our friends the farmer have good reason to thank General Mitre for this sound reform. None are those who have resided in the camp in stormy times, can appreciate the benefit conferred upon the pastoral and working industry of the country by this measure. An ir responsible Cabo, or bare-footed Alcalde, too often had it in his power to pounce down upon any one Foreigner's flock of sheep, and take the fattest Ewes to feed the soldiers. We have known instances, where a farmer nearly lost his life remonstrating with some fellows on their taking Ewes instead of capons

We have received a beautiful sample of cotton from Mr Gowland, grown in the Province of Salta; it is at present on exhibition at our office, which is now becoming a regular Museum. We have samples of cotton from almost every province of the Republic, also sugar-cane from Mendoza, maize from the Islands near Rosario, gold from Fray Bentos, silver from San Juan, wine from Mendoza; in fact, a hundred extraordinary things which are sent in to us from all quarters. Many of our friends, on entering our office profess astonishment at the extraordinary appearance of the place: sheep-wash, wool-samples, cotton gins, bags of cotton and bales of wool. But on our office as emblematic of our mission, "to create and foster the industry of the country."

It has been disputed how the voting went the other day, on Sr Varela's motion, asserting that it was 29 for and 30 against. The Secretary insists that it was 19 for and 45 against. We, however, distinctly state it was 29 for and 30 against. In any event our friend Don Mariano lost.

We perceive in the "Nacion Argentina," a notice to the public respecting a subscription that it was to be the purpose of presenting Messrs Lees with gold medals, in which it states that similar lists are opened at the Bolsa and other places. Perhaps they omitted to name the "Standard" we cannot discover, as it was one of the penny a liners of that very paper that spoke of the Lees in such terms. We regret that the Messrs Lees leave us so soon; they take with them the best wishes of all who have had the good fortune to know them. Buenos Ayres has never witnessed before such astounding feats as the xampitheatro-station of Messrs Lees and Hurlingham.

The horse suit in the Villa Lezan, is a "bona fide" case and will cause some amusement before finished, as our friend, the plaintiff, is determined to carry it through all the courts in town before he gives it up. We hear he went to see Mr Canon yesterday, but the Chief was out, so he was told to call again.

In our report of the fire, we forgot not only to mention Mr Cazon's name and his wonderful exertions. But we would have hoped none on the list of those we have mentioned, in his report, the foreigners who were so indefatigable in their exertions.

The Argentine races, which are advertised for Sunday, promise well we see the names of several good horses but our Argentine friends would do well to attend on Monday, as on Sunday, as many foreigners who could attend on a week day, don't go so much places on Sunday.

We call particular attention to advertisement in our columns respecting the sale of claims against the government. These claims are speculated on unjustly by the public sharks. If fair newspapers got hold of this, it will be very prejudicial to the country's credit in Europe. We recommend our Finance Ministers to look at Mr Peirce's notice, and arrange the matter, as it is calculated to do little good to our adopted country.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs is about to present the public to 800 pages of an appendix to the President's message we believe that the principal matter is the Peruvian and Chilian notes concerning the Mexican question.

The Correntine Senator, Gn. Ferre has not yet arrived; something must have happened to him or his vessel, as he is now, 3 weeks on his way down. The little boat he started in has not been heard of, a sure symptom of something to be nervous for the Senator's safety."

We have despatched another bag of letters and Sr. Correa. A gentleman residing at Curuzu Cuatia, is about to plant some 5 squares of cotton; he states, that in many parts of the country, cotton grows wild up there, and as he has a great deal of land lying idle, it is determined to turn it to some account.

ROSARIO.

The rebel Ontiveros, who was defeated and put to flight at Arroyo Seco, appears in the vicinity of Rio Quinto, threatening to repeat his inroads in the province of Cordoba. The Diario of the 5th inst, states that the city of St. Luis is out-reported, and while they mounted in the plaza barricades are erected, every two blocks, and the male inhabitants are all under arms. Barbeito received intimation that Ontiveros was marching on the town at the head of 600 Indians, and an attack was hourly expected.

In Villa Nueva a grand funeral service was got up, by subscription, in honor of the late Colonel Carranza, assassinated in the mutiny at Lafiaus. The Diario represents all traffic with the interior at a stand-still, owing to dread of the marauders. No garrisons along the frontier; the Governor expects immediate invasion, Rio Cuarto is deserted, Achiras is barricaded.

FLORES NEWS.

From Payaanda we learn that all the horses and mares are taken up.

The Bahia Blanca letters from his establishment by the Government.

Several other foreigners have lost their horses also. The Government has made a clean sweep of all the native ponies, not one is to be found from Salto to Montevideo.

There are 2000 men under arms in Payaanda guarding the town.

The Minister of War, Sr. Gelly, we understand has succeeded in supplying the troops with provisions, and paralizing Flores. He deserves every praise for this.

A QUEER TRANSLATION.

May 6th 1863.

Dear Sir. The canny subscriber would thank you to translate Government documents, as we find it very difficult to render them in English as they ought. I enclose you Mr. Nuñez's letter (which I have put in English)—who, by the way, I think has been a Nooney, as he is no parish. I lived in at home, the Nooneys were very decent people, and Mick Nooney emigrated in 1850; no I wouldn't be surprised, as Mick was a terrible talker and writer, if the following letter was written by him. We expect an answer in the next "Weekly Standard."

Yours,

P. V.

Buenos Ayres 3rd May 1863.

To the citizen Mr. M. Acosta.

The individual who signs this letter has the honor of directing it to you has a certified copy of the decree which His Excellency Mr. Governor, has made, by which it appears that you are to be appointed to the vacant post of 1st Minister Secretary in the Government department.

The subscriber not decided upon which the legislature has just given to the acts of the administration which has been just extinguished (they never had any existence, that is) you are in duty bound to imagine as a hoax, in as much as you unfortunately were the only one who was not in the secret of the Government, and knew nothing of the Confederation, took place especial consideration the circumstances thereof. Finding the term for such ratification had already expired, and that there were, moreover, severe objections against the Government declined acceding to such petition, explaining at the same time the motive prompting such resolution, and giving the Brazilian Government a solemn assurance that the commerce and subjects of that country would enjoy the same advantages as heretofore, in perfect equality with all other foreign residents, under the protection of our Constitution, which guarantees even full reparations that are contained in the said treaty.

Yours, &c.

JOHN MICHAEL NUÑEZ.

ne Nooney.

We regret to say that we cannot date whether Nuñez is an Irishman or not; the names are very similar, and if an owner of that name was wanted to a large estate near Blarney, we should't wonder at John Michael having a claim.

We cannot always translate these official letters. As they are so wordy we should have room for nothing else in the paper, if we did; but any document of importance to our subscribers we always reduce to English.—Ed.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Meantime the Argentine Government declared that, if the invasion of Mexico should bring to light sinister plans of any foreign power against this continent, it would consult the common safety of the American republics, in which sentiments it is hoped the Nat. Congress will coincide.

The Chilian Government, no less alarmed by the policy of the French Emperor, declared, in a circular, that the Argentine cabinet to indorse the sentiments and ideas contained in a despatch to the Chilian minister at the court of St. James. Agreeing in unity with such sentiments, we replied that we were firmly resolved to preserve independence and democracy in these countries, without prejudice to our peace and harmony with the States of Europe and America, on the broad principle of mutual respect for our sovereign rights and obligations. The Argentine Government confided in the friendly feeling of that republic (Chile) to bring in a favorable conclusion such minor questions, thus strengthening the bond of fraternity which is now absolutely necessary among the American states.

The events in Mexico further indicated the Government of the Columbian states to request the Argentine Government to enter into a league, in view of the common danger impending on the continent. The same reply was given as in the case of Peru and Chile

The disastrous war, which still rages in the Great Republic of the U. States, affects seriously our commerce with that country, which was steadily increasing of late years. The Argentine Government sincerely wishes the most fervent wishes for the restoration of peace and concord among the rich dcea of that republic, which is justly looked as a model for the rest of this continent.

Respecting our relations with European powers, it is pleasing to note that nothing has occurred during the year to disturb their cordiality.

H. B. M. the prince of Wales dominie manded, in the name of her Britannic Majesty, the death of H. R. H. the prince consort. The Government sympathised with the Queen and Royal family on the loss of so illustrious a prince. Several claims of British subjects are in course of settlement, and all negotiations with the Government are discharged with religious exactness. The provincial Chambers have not yet decided on several arrangements lately concluded touching old claims for compensation by English, French and Italians. It is to be hoped this matter will be quickly wound up. Divers other subjects of national interest, as well as the Government are by the British Legation, will have an issue favorable to both countries.

As regards the Fre ch Empire, from which we have received proofs of esteem and friendship, Government will endeavor to give every satisfaction to claims still pending or unsettled, fulfilling, also, with strict punctuality the obligations previously contracted.

Several questions having been lately appointed by the King of the Belgians, the Argentine Government studies to display its wish to draw closer the bonds of friendship and commercial relations with both countries, in conjunction with the same distinguished representative, in order to arrive at a result under the notice of this Government.

H. R. The Government expressed its regret for the loss of so illustrious a sovereign. The former Chargé d'affaires for Portugal was accredited in the same character to the new Government.

MISCELLANEA.

It is only three or four days since the Petrel arrived here from Charleston, and Havana. The ship had scarcely come to an anchor before the whole town was astir on deck and sung first the national air of Great Britain, and immediately after "Dixey's Land," with a warm version for the South of "We Will Defend her." This was done while lying off a distance of about two hundred yards from the fort, and about fifty yards off the blockading steamer Mystic.—"Philadelphia paper." (A "steamer" surely!)

Amber Teeth Setting.

156—Calle Cuyo—156

Parks E. Kenna sets teeth by a new intention, amber, which is found superior to every other mode. It accommodates itself to the gums and palate with more facility than gold, which requires springs. A set of teeth in amber, after two days, serves for mastication, speak better, and is less dear.

My collection of artificial teeth is very fine, and cannot be distinguished from a natural set. I will also clean teeth with my new mixture.

I have a number of instrument for extracting roots of teeth. also for stopping the same with gold, silver, &c., which I guarantee for a number of years.
